Customer Information may also include, but is not limited to, information such as the individual’s name, address, telephone number, social security number, as well as the fact that the individual has applied for, is insured under, or had purchased a Phoenix product. Customer Information does not, however, include information that is (1) generally available in the public domain and is derived or received from such public sources by Broker (2) received, obtained, developed or created by the Broker independently from the performance of its obligations under this Agreement; (3) disclosed to the Broker by a third party, provided such disclosure was made to Broker without any violation of an independent obligation of confidentiality or Applicable Law of which the Broker is aware.

PHI is defined as individually identifiable information that is transmitted or maintained in any medium and related to: the past, present or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual; or future payment for the provision of health care to the individual. This definition of PHI includes demographic information about the individual, including, but not limited to, names, geographic subdivisions smaller than a state (including but not limited to street addresses and ZIP codes); all elements of dates (except year) for dates directly related to an individual, including but not limited to birth date; telephone numbers; fax numbers; electronic mail (E-mail) addresses; Social Security numbers; medical record numbers; health plan beneficiary numbers; account numbers; certificate/license numbers; vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers; device identifiers and serial numbers; Web Universal Resource Locators (URLs); Internet Protocol (IP) address numbers; biometric identifiers; including finger and voice prints; full face photographic images and any comparable images; and any other unique identifying number, characteristic, or code.

ARTICLE II OBLIGATIONS OF BROKER

Section 2.1 Licensing. Broker shall offer Phoenix Products only in those states where it has valid licenses (to the extent licensing is required) at the time of solicitation and sale, has completed legally required educational requirements, if any, and is otherwise in good standing with each state agency that regulates the sale of the Phoenix Products. Broker shall take reasonable steps to ensure that Broker offers Phoenix Products only in each jurisdiction where Broker has all required licenses at the time of solicitation and sale, has completed legally required educational requirements, if any, and is otherwise in good standing with each state agency that regulates the sale of the Phoenix Products.

Section 2.2 Phoenix Materials. To the extent that Broker uses brochures, other promotional materials and literature, and training material in connection with marketing or servicing Phoenix Products, or that mention Phoenix, its products or services in any way (“Phoenix Materials”), such materials shall only be used with the prior written approval of Phoenix. Similarly, Broker shall not use any information related to Phoenix or Phoenix Products on any Website without the prior written consent of Phoenix. Any requests for written approval of materials for use by Broker shall be submitted in writing by Brokerage General Agent to Phoenix.

Section 2.3 Disclosure of Relationship with Phoenix and Disclosure of Compensation. If and as required by Applicable Law, Broker must disclose in writing to each applicant for a Phoenix Product, Broker’s relationship with Phoenix and the compensation, and anything of value, Broker receives from Phoenix for the services performed under this or any other Agreement. Phoenix reserves the right to disclose to its purchasers of Phoenix Products, and potential purchasers of Phoenix products, details regarding compensation, and anything of value, it, and any Phoenix affiliate, may pay to Broker, or any of their respective affiliates, under this Agreement and any other agreement.

Section 2.4 Suitability. Broker shall insure that each sale of Phoenix Products covered by this Agreement which is proposed or made directly by the Broker is appropriate for and suitable to the needs of the insured and the person or entity to whom Broker made the sale, at the time the sale is made, and suitable in accordance with Applicable Law governing suitability of insurance products. Prior to presentation of an application for a Phoenix Product to an individual, Broker shall deliver to the applicant any and all notices or other written documents required, either by Applicable Law or by Phoenix, for delivery at or prior to the time of application, including, without limitation, any legally and Phoenix required suitability forms and any legally-required shoppers' or buyers' guide. The knowledge of or consent to the sale by the insured or the person or entity to whom the Broker made the sale is not evidence of suitability.

Section 2.5 Replacement. Broker shall not engage in the systematic replacement of any insurance products, including the replacement of Phoenix Products. Consistent with Applicable Law, Broker shall make necessary inquiries to each applicant for a Phoenix Product as to any insurance already in effect for the applicant and, upon determination that a prospective sale involves the replacement of existing coverage, Broker shall furnish the applicant with and effect proper execution and retention of any replacement notices and information as required by Applicable Law.

Section 2.6 Marketing and Underwriting. Broker shall comply with all marketing and underwriting guidelines of Phoenix applicable to the Phoenix Products. Broker acknowledges, as stated in Article V of this Agreement, that Phoenix will make all underwriting decisions with respect to Phoenix Products.

Section 2.7 Transmission of Applications and Purchase Payments. Broke shall transmit promptly to Phoenix (and in no event later than five (5) Business Days of receipt by the Broker), all applications and any applicable initial purchase payments or premiums for Phoenix Products. Broker shall not collect any payments other than initial purchase payments or premiums. Broker shall only collect payments in a form as directed by Phoenix.

Section 2.8 Premium Discounts and Rebating. Broker shall not discount premiums, except with the prior written approval from Phoenix, or engage in rebating in connection with the sale of a Phoenix Product.

Section 2.9 Contract Delivery. Broker shall deliver newly issued contract to the contract owner in accordance with Phoenix's published guidelines. Broker shall have each contract owner and insured sign a delivery receipt (Policy Acceptance Form) consistent with Phoenix's requirements.

Section 2.10 Ethical/Professional Behavior; Compliance. In the conduct of its business and in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, Broker shall comply with all Applicable Laws and polices and procedures established by Phoenix, as may be amended from time to time and communicated to Brokerage General Agent.

Section 2.11 Policyholder Complaint Handling. Upon receipt of any written or oral complaint from a policyholder, Broker will immediately advise Brokerage General Agent and Phoenix Client Relations of the complaint. Broker agrees to fully cooperate with Phoenix in its investigation of the matter. This cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, responding to any requests for information, providing any needed statements and supplying copies of files on the matter that is the subject of the complaint. Broker has no authority to settle or resolve the complaint involving a Phoenix product.

Section 2.12 Notification of Any Examination, Investigation or Litigation. Broker will immediately notify Brokerage General Agent and the General Counsel of Phoenix of any investigations or examinations commenced by any regulatory authorities to any aspect of Broker's marketing and sales practices. Broker further agrees to immediately notify Brokerage General Agent and the Phoenix General Counsel of any pending or threatened litigation which relates to Broker sales practices involving the sales of any Phoenix products.

Section 2.13 Insurable Interest. Broker shall not directly or indirectly participate in a practice or plan to initiate a life insurance policy for the ultimate benefit of a third party who, at the time the life insurance policy is originated, has no insurable interest in the insured, the insured's consent to or knowledge of the insurance coverage notwithstanding.

ARTICLE III COMPENSATION

Section 3.1 Broker Compensation. Except as provided in Sections 3.4 and 3.7 of this Agreement, Phoenix shall pay compensation as provided in Compensation Schedule 3.1 attached hereto and incorporated herein. Phoenix shall pay the compensation on payments received by Phoenix for contracts which are produced in accordance with this Agreement and which are delivered to the proposed contract owner. Phoenix shall not pay compensation under this Agreement to the Broker unless the Broker is legally authorized to receive it.

Section 3.2 Expenses. The Broker is responsible for all expenses incurred by the Broker, except as may be agreed to in writing by Phoenix prior to the Broker incurring such expenses. Additionally, Phoenix shall, at its expense, provide its standard advertising and promotional material to the Broker when deemed appropriate by Phoenix.

Section 3.3 Vesting. Except as provided in Section 3.1, Compensation Schedule 3.1, and in the case of a termination of this Agreement for cause, commissions that are vested will be paid whether or not this Agreement has been terminated at the time the premium is paid on which the commission is based. The vested commission payable on any product is determined from the Compensation Schedule 3.1 in force at the time the first year premium payment was made. This commission as earned in accordance with this contract, will be payable to Broker, or, if Broker is an individual and is deceased, to Broker's executor or administrator. If this Agreement is terminated for cause by Phoenix, no further commissions or compensation of any kind will be payable to Broker.

Section 3.4 Compensation Changes. Phoenix reserves the right in its sole discretion to alter or amend the compensation payable to Broker under this Agreement and any such change will be effective for compensation payable on or after the effective date of such change. Phoenix shall notify Brokerage General Agent of such change by any means deemed appropriate and reasonable by Phoenix.

Section 3.5 Repayment of Commissions. Except as otherwise provided in Compensation Schedule 3.1, In the event of a chargeback of commissions, any compensation paid by Phoenix to Broker (whether or not a portion of such compensation is paid by the Broker to a Sub-Producer) shall be promptly repaid to Phoenix by Broker. Broker shall reasonably cooperate with and assist Phoenix in the recovery of any such compensation. Repayments of commissions are required in the following instances:

- (a) Refund of Premium Should Phoenix for any reason refund or return any amount of any premium payment made on a policy or contract, including, but not limited to, any premiums under any Free Look Provision , any compensation thereon paid by Phoenix to Broker shall be promptly repaid to Phoenix by Broker. Broker shall also refund any advanced commissions or other compensation which became unearned because of non-payment of premiums. In addition, Broker shall promptly repay to Phoenix the amount of any other charge back of compensation in connection with the Products that have been issued pursuant to this Agreement in accordance with Section 3.1. If Phoenix waives a premium for any reason, Broker shall not be entitled to compensation on such waived premium.
- (b) Reduction or Modification If, before the end of the second policy year, the policy is reduced in amount or is divided into two or more policies so that one or more policies are written on which the rate of the first year commissions in accordance with the standard commission schedule would have been less than was actually paid thereunder, then the excess first year commission, renewal commissions or any other compensation over the respective amounts due on said changed policy or policies shall be returned to Phoenix.
- (c) Termination under Policy Rider If a policy sold by Broker is lapsed, surrendered, canceled or otherwise terminated by the policyholder by exercising a right given the policyholder by the terms of any rider to the policy, all compensation paid on the policy shall be returned to Phoenix.
- (d) Surrender, Death or Termination in the First Year If during the first policy year the annuity policy is terminated by reason of death, free look or total surrender, all compensation paid on the policy shall be returned to Phoenix. If during the first policy year of the annuity policy there is a partial surrender in excess of any penalty free surrender amount, the compensation on that excess amount shall be returned to the Company.

Section 3.6 Phoenix's Right to Offset. In calculating the amount of compensation payable, Phoenix or any of its affiliates may at any time offset against any compensation payable to Broker or its successors or assigns, any indebtedness however or wherever incurred due from Broker. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as giving Broker the right to incur any indebtedness on behalf of Phoenix. Phoenix shall have, and is hereby granted, a first lien on any and all compensation payable under this Agreement as security for the payment of any and all remaining indebtedness of Broker to Phoenix arising under this Agreement and not offset as provided herein. The right of Broker to receive any compensation provided by this Agreement shall be subordinate to the right of Phoenix or any of its affiliates to offset such compensation against any such indebtedness of the Broker to Phoenix or any of its affiliates.

Section 3.7 Replacement Compensation. If Broker replaces an existing Phoenix Product in whole or in part, Schedule 3.1 is inapplicable and Phoenix, in its sole discretion, shall determine what, if any, commissions shall be payable in accordance with Phoenix's procedures in effect at the time of such replacement.

Section 3.8 Potential Conflict with Other Agreements. Compensation Schedule 3.1 hereto sets forth the compensation that shall be payable for the sale of Phoenix Products under this Agreement. Notwithstanding any written agreement between the Parties to the contrary, the maximum compensation rates payable to Brokers for Phoenix Products under this Agreement shall be the rates set forth in Compensation Schedule 3.1 hereto. If Phoenix pays higher compensation to a Broker than the compensation set forth in Compensation Schedule 3.1 for business written under this Agreement, then Broker shall be obligated to reimburse Phoenix for such payment.

Section 3.9 Lapse or Termination. If any policy sold by Broker is lapsed, terminated, or not taken, no commission thereafter shall be payable to Broker unless Broker is wholly instrumental in restoring it while Broker is acting hereunder and within three (3) months of the lapse or cancellation.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATIONS ON AUTHORITY

Section 4.1 The authority of the Broker is limited to the authority expressly given in this Agreement. In addition to any specific limitations on Broker's authority found elsewhere in this Agreement, Broker acknowledges that it does not have the authority to perform any of the following acts or to commit Phoenix to perform any of the following acts:

- (a) To waive, modify, or change any terms, rates, conditions, or limitations of any application or contract;

- (c) To collect or receive any payments after the initial purchase payment;
- (d) To extend the time for any payment or reinstate any coverage terminated;
- (e) To accept liability for or to adjust or settle any claims; or
- (f) To enter into or appear in any legal proceedings as a representative of Phoenix.

ARTICLE V RESERVATION OF RIGHTS BY PHOENIX

- (a) In its sole discretion, determine whether or not to appoint Broker;
- (b) Conduct a background check on Broker at any time in compliance with provisions of state and federal law;

- (d) Make all underwriting decisions with respect to the Phoenix Products;
- (e) Decline any application for insurance submitted by Broker;
- (f) Discontinue any form of contract in any or all jurisdictions in which Phoenix does business;
- (g) Resume the use of form of any contract at any time; and
- (h) Refuse to accept any applications received for any discontinued contract form(s) after the effective date of discontinuance, which will require Broker to return promptly any payment collected on that application(s) to the applicant(s).

Broker shall treat Customer Information as confidential as required by Applicable Law and by Phoenix's privacy notices and in accordance with Phoenix policies and procedures. Broker further agrees to comply with Phoenix terms of use, policies and procedures with respect to use of Phoenix electronic systems and databases providing access to Customer Information by Broker and shall promptly report to Phoenix any breach of security related to such systems and databases of which it becomes aware. Broker may use Customer Information only for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations under the Agreement. Broker shall not disclose or otherwise make accessible Customer Information to anyone other than to the individual to whom the information related (or to his or her legally authorized representative) or to other persons pursuant to a valid authorization signed by the individual to whom the information relates (or by his or her legally authorized representative), except as required for Broker to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, as otherwise directed by Phoenix, or as expressly required by Applicable Law.

Section 6.2 Protected Health Information ("PHI"). In order to comply with HIPAA requirements, Broker agrees with respect to any PHI received, obtained or created by Broker, or disclosed or made accessible to Broker, that Broker: (a) shall not use or disclose PHI except to provide services pursuant to this Agreement and consistent with Applicable Law; (b) shall limit the use of, access to and disclosure of PHI to the minimum required to perform services or by Applicable Law; (c) shall use appropriate safeguards to prevent use or disclosure of PHI except as permitted by this Agreement; (d) shall promptly report to Phoenix any use or disclosure of Phoenix PHI not permitted by this Agreement of which it becomes aware; (e) shall take reasonable steps to mitigate any harmful effect of any use or disclosure of PHI by Broker in violation of the terms of this Agreement or Applicable Law; (f) shall, within fifteen (15) days of Phoenix's request, provide to Phoenix any PHI or information relating to PHI as deemed necessary by Phoenix to provide individuals with access to, amendment of, and an accounting of disclosures of their PHI, and to incorporate any amendments of the PHI as requested by Phoenix; (g) shall make its internal practices, books and records relating to its use or disclosure of PHI available to the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services at his/her request to determine Phoenix's compliance with Applicable Law; (h) agrees that upon termination of this Agreement it will, if feasible, return to Phoenix or destroy all PHI it maintains in any form and retain no copies, and if such return or destruction is not feasible, to extend the protections of this Agreement to the PHI beyond the termination of this Agreement and for as long as Broker has PHI, and further agrees that any further use or disclosure of the PHI will be solely for the purposes that make return or destruction infeasible. Destruction without retention of copies is not deemed feasible if prohibited by the terms of this Agreement or by Applicable Law, including record retention requirements under state insurance laws. With respect to PHI received made accessible, maintained or transmitted electronically in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, Broker further agrees that it shall implement administrative, physical, and technical safeguards that reasonably and appropriately protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of any such electronic PHI;

Section 6.3 Privacy Notices and Authorizations. Broker shall provide to prospective customers who apply for or purchase Phoenix products Phoenix privacy notices as required by Applicable Laws and by Phoenix. Broker shall obtain signed authorizations from customers and prospective customers who apply for Phoenix products, as required by Phoenix, and provides upon request of such customers and prospective customers, copies of their signed authorizations as required by Applicable Law and Phoenix policy. In the event that a customer or prospective customer has signed a Phoenix authorization and subsequently informs Broker that he or she is revoking that authorization, Broker shall promptly inform Phoenix in writing of such revocation.

ARTICLE VII
CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 7.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means, without limitation, (a) statistical, premium rate and other information that is identified by Phoenix as commercially valuable, confidential, proprietary or a trade secret, including but not limited to information regarding Phoenix's systems and rating methodology; and (b) any information identified in writing by a Party as confidential at the time the information is divulged.

Section 7.2 Treatment of Confidential Information. The parties each shall keep confidential all Confidential Information of the other. Section 7.4 Provisions Not Applicable. The Parties each agree that any information which was previously disclosed by the other without restriction or which has otherwise become generally available to the public through authorized disclosure is not Confidential Information. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Confidential Information does not include any information, written or oral, which (a) at the time of disclosure or thereafter is generally available to and known by the public (other than as a result of a disclosure in violation of this Agreement), (b) has been independently acquired or developed by the receiving Party without violating any of the obligations under this Agreement, or (c) was made available to the receiving Party on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the disclosing Party, provided that such source is not and was not bound by an obligation of confidentiality, and provided further that disclosure of such information by the receiving Party without prior knowledge that the source was bound by an obligation of confidentiality is not a breach of this Agreement.

Section 7.5 Damages. The Parties each agree that (a) money damages may not be a sufficient remedy for breach of this Article VII, (b) the Party aggrieved by any such breach may be entitled to specific performance and injunctive and other equitable relief with respect to such breach, (c) such remedies shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedies for any such breach but will be in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity, and (d) in the event of litigation relating to this Article VII, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final non-appealable order that either Phoenix or Broker or any of their respective Representatives has breached this Article VII, then the Party that is found (or whose Representative is found) to have committed such breach shall be liable for reasonable legal fees incurred by the aggrieved Party or its affiliates in connection with such litigation including, without limitation, any appeals.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

After receipt of notice of the commencement of, or threat of, any claim, action, or proceeding by a third-party (a "Third-Party Action") by a Party that believes it is entitled to indemnification under this Article VIII (the "Indemnified Party"), the Indemnified Party shall notify the Party obligated to provide indemnification under this Article VIII (the "Indemnifying Party") in writing of the commencement thereof as soon as practicable thereafter, provided that the omission to so notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve it from any liability under this Article VIII, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party demonstrates that the defense of such Third-Party Action is materially prejudiced by the failure to give timely notice. Such notice shall describe the claim in reasonable detail.

Section 8.3. Defense, Settlement and Subrogation.

- (a) The Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume control of the defense of such Third-Party Action and shall retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party to represent the Indemnified Party and shall pay the reasonable fees and disbursements of such counsel related to such Third-Party

- (c) If notice is given to the Indemnifying Party of the commencement of any Third-Party Action hereunder and the Indemnifying Party does not, either (i) within ten (10) Business Days after the receipt of such notice, give notice to the Indemnified Party of its election to assume the defense of such Third-Party Action, or (ii) give notice to the Indemnified Party that it rejects the claim for indemnification pursuant to Section 8.5, herein, the Indemnified Party shall have the right, at its option and at the Indemnifying Party's expense, to defend such Third-Party Action in a manner that the Indemnified Party deems appropriate. - (d) In any Third Party Action, the defense of which is controlled by the Indemnifying Party: (i) the Indemnifying Party shall not, without the Indemnified Party's prior written consent, compromise or settle such Third Party Action, if (1) such compromise or settlement would impose an injunction or other equitable relief upon the Indemnified Party or (2) such compromise or settlement does not include the Third-Party's release of the Indemnified Party from all liability relating to such Third Party Action; and (ii) the Indemnified Party shall not compromise or settle such Third Party Action without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Part, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided that, if the Indemnified Party desires to compromise or settle such claim, suit or proceeding and the Indemnifying Party reasonably refuses to consent to such compromise or settlement, the Indemnified Party may enter into a compromise or settlement but shall be solely responsible for the cost of any compromise or settlement amount.

As an insurance producer, your skills and services help your clients achieve financial success and security. Because you are on the front lines of a multi-billion dollar industry, you are in a unique position to not only serve your clients, but also serve your country by helping to prevent money laundering and the financing of terrorist activities.

The Treasury Department's Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) has issued new regulations requiring insurance companies to establish anti-money laundering ("AML") programs that include, among other things, the integration of agents and the reporting of suspicious transactions. Agent integration consists of many components including but not limited to the requirements set forth in this Guide.

Phoenix must take steps to ensure that all transactions comply with these new AML regulations. As a Phoenix producer you have an important role to play in our AML program. To that end, you must comply with the following requirements when selling Phoenix's individual life insurance and annuity products:

1. RECEIVE ANNUAL ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING TRAINING:

Each year you must review and understand your obligations with respect to Phoenix's AML Program as outlined in this Guide and further explained within the Advisor Center on www.phoenixwm.com including becoming familiar with Phoenix's "Covered Products" and the potential risk for money laundering with these products.

- AND -

Each year you must receive core AML training through one of the following measures:

- Take the LIMRA AML online training course at <https://aml.limra.com>;

[Please refer to the Advisor Center on www.phoenixwm.com for directions on how to login and use the LIMRA online training course]

- OR -

- Check with your Broker Dealer/Agency to determine if other Phoenix approval has been obtained.

2. KNOW YOUR CUSTOMER:

You must ensure that all customer information on the product application and associated documentation is complete and accurate. In other words, you must provide customer information to us about your clients and their financial activities. The following information shall be required in all instances before an application may be established for a customer:

Individual	Business
Name	Name
Telephone number	Telephone number
Address (P.O. Box not acceptable)	Mailing address of business or principal place of business
Tax identification number	Tax identification number
Date of Birth	Type of Business Organization
Occupation	Ownership Information about the Business

The information above is the minimum information required by Phoenix in order to process an application. You should also provide any additional customer information that is required by your individual broker dealer and/or agency.

Enhanced Due Diligence. There are certain types of customers who may pose a higher risk of engaging in money laundering activities, and for whom additional due diligence is required. These types of customers include but are not limited to:

- Non-resident aliens or foreign customers,
- Customers who resist providing identifying information,
- Senior foreign political figures and their immediate family members, and
- Non-governmental suspicious organizations or charities.

3. ACCEPT ONLY THE FOLLOWING TYPES OF PAYMENT FROM CUSTOMERS:

- Checks written from an individual or corporate account payable to Phoenix,
- Checks written from an individual or corporate account, payable to a trust and endorsed over to Phoenix,
- Foreign checks payable to Phoenix. The check must be paid through a U.S. Bank (Correspondent Bank) as noted on the front of the check and must be in U.S. currency,
- Money Orders,
- Bank Checks, or
- Starter checks may or may not be accepted depending on Phoenix's verification of the customer's name and address that is consistent with the information provided on the application.

[Please refer to the Advisor Center on www.phoenixwm.com for the most current list of acceptable forms of payment]

4. NOTIFY PHOENIX IF YOU DETECT ANY MONEY LAUNDERING RED FLAGS, SUCH AS:

- The purchase of a product that appears to be inconsistent with a customer's needs or exhibits lack of concern regarding investment risk,
- Little or no concern by a customer for the investment performance of an insurance product, but much concern about the early termination features of the product,
- Customer reluctance to provide identifying information, or the provision of information that seems fictitious (For example, a New York phone number with a Texas address),
- Customer is unusually curious about compliance procedures,
- Policy owner and/or insured focuses on the administrative aspects of procedure (such as compliance, etc..) versus the purchase itself,
- Policy owner and/or insured purchases multiple policies where insured differs on each of the policies,
- Policy owner and/or insured has a recent substantial change in financial history, or
- Any other activity that you reasonably believe may be suspicious.

[Please refer to the Advisor Center on www.phoenixwm.com for more information about identifying and for a complete list of red flags]

IF YOU DETECT RED FLAG OR SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY, YOU MUST CONTACT THE CORPORATE COMPLIANCE DEPARTMENT ON THE "AML HOTLINE" AT 1-800-4986-8819 OR VIA EMAIL AT amlcompliance@phoenixwm.com. PLEASE NOTE THAT A REFERRAL TO THE COMPLIANCE DEPARTMENT IS TREATED CONFIDENTIALLY AND MAY NOT BE DISCUSSED WITH ANY THIRD PARTIES. YOU MUST NOT, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, DISCLOSE THE FACT THAT A SAR HAS BEEN FILED. OR EVEN CONSIDERED. TO THE SUBJECT OF THE SAR OR TO ANY THIRD PARTIES.

For additional details on your AML requirements please refer to the Advisor Center on www.phoenixwm.com

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a “saving clause.” Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 ¹	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7

² However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

Call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you think your identity has been used inappropriately for tax purposes.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS personal property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT(438-4338).

Visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, or Archer MSA or HSA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.
